MESSANGER ROBBED.

Wynn Concannon Sandbagged and Dangerously Injured in His Car.

THE THIEF ESCAPES.

The Deed Was Perpetrated in the Suburbs of Denison—The Robber Secured About Ten Thousand Dollars.

Denison, Tex., Nov. 1.—The boldest and most daring robbery ever attempted in north Texas, was perpetrated upon Wynn C. Concannon, the American express messenger, who runs between Sherman and this place at about 6:40 o'clock last evening.

The messenger was sandbagged in his car in the suburbs of this place and is still in a precarious condition.

The robbery was one of the shrewdest pieces of work ever done in the annals of crime, and the robber or robbers got off with the booty and left no trail behind them, no more than if the earth had opened and swallowed them.

The robbery was committed while the train was in motion, within the space of five to seven minute's time, and while the train was passing through that portion of the Katy yards between the roundhouse and the Union station.

The train left Sherman at 6:05 and everything was all right when Conductor J. M. Romer passed out of the express car at the roundhouse here, within a quarter of a mile of the station.

When it pulled into the station W. T. Morehead, driver of the American Express company's wagon, who makes the trains to transfer express uptown, pushed his truck up to the door and looked inside the car, finding Express Messenger Concannon writhing on the floor, seemingly in a fit.

Conductor Romer was notified and went to the car. He looked in and believed the messenger was sick. Water was obtained and dashed into his face, but he did not heed it.

Noticing that his safe was open and that his papers were scattered about the floor, Conductor Romer suspected a robbery had been committed, and sent for officers.

Express Messenger Concannon was taken to his room at the home of Mrs. C. M. Davis, 318 South Rusk avenue, where Drs. A. W. Acheson and Robert Yancy, local surgeon for the Missouri, Kansas and Texas went to attend him.

They made a thorough examination of his head and body and found no contusions or wounds. His pulse was very weak and his heart beats faint and hypodermic injections were given him to revive his pulse.

There were two heavy consignments of money in the safe—one a package of $5000 from the Merchants' and Planters' bank of Sherman to the bank at Rockwall and the other a consignment of $5000 from the Merchants' and Planters' bank to the bank at Whitewright. There were other consignments of money, making the total somewhat in excess of $10,000.

The safe in which the money was carried was one of the small local safes used by the American Express company in their local business. It did not have the combination that is carried on the larger safes on the heavy runs and are not opened by a combination, but was opened by a large key carried on the person of the messenger.

The theory of the officer is that the robber was concealed somewhere in the car, and that while the back of the messenger was turned, the man slipped up behind and struck the blow with a heavy sandbag.

The robbery was committed within four blocks of the place where B. A. Jennings was sandbagged and robbed some weeks ago.

A NOVEL FORGERY.

Convict Gains His Freedom on False Pardon Papers.

Austin, Nov. 1.—Governor Sayers has received the startling information from the state penitentiary that a life termed convict named Isaacs had been released something like a month ago on a pardon signed by himself.

The governor never having signed any such a pardon, was startled to find it on the prison records. He immediately began an investigation, but has not developed as to how the pardon was forged and worked off on the prison officials.

It reached them through the mails in the usual way and nothing was thought of it until Tuesday's developments brought on an investigation.

It is surmised that some of Isaacs' friends bought a pardon from some state convict recently released, and inserting his name in place of the original man, mailed it to the penitentiary officials with most satisfactory results.

The officials will try and locate Isaacs at once, as well as the man who so cleverly forged his pardon.

NO HOPE FOR HOBART.

Death at any Time Would Not Surprise the Family or Physicians.

New York, Nov. 1.—Vice President Hobart spent the most restful night Tuesday night he experienced in the past two weeks. Mr. Evans, Mr. Hobart's private secretary, says the vice president's condition is more hopeful than it has been for the last few days, but again acknowledged the chances of recovery had about gone, and the family nor the physicians would be surprised if he died at any time now.

WILL NOT INTERFERE.

The Jeffries-Sharkey Fight Will Come Off Friday Night.

New York, Nov. 1.—There will be no interference from the authorities at the Jeffries-Sharkey heavyweight championship battle to take place at Coney Island on Friday night. Chief of Police Devery is authority for this statement.

A feature at the club house Friday night will be the lightning apparatus operating the moving picture machine. There will be 400 incandescent lights shedding their brilliancy on the ring. It was found in experimenting with the lights that they greatly enhanced the view of the men in the arena.

Present indications are that the gate receipts will be larger by many thousands of dollars—by tens of thousands of dollars—than the gate receipts of any sporting or dramatic event or any other event to which an admission fee is charged in the history of the country. If the entire house for this fight should be sold out it will mean a gate of $110,000. The total sale up to Tuesday night was in the neighborhood of $40,000, with the prospects that this sum will be increased to $50,000 before the doors are thrown open on Friday night.

SAMOAN QUESTION.

All Must Agree Before any Settlement Can Be Made.

Washington, Nov. 1.—So far as can be learned, nothing is known in Washington of the reported offer by Great Britain to sell the Gilbert islands and the Solomon islands in the Pacific to Germany. Negotiations for the settlement of the Samoan question have reached a stage where Great Britain is called upon to make a proposition of some kind, and the German foreign office may have been sought to learn whether Germany would be willing to turn over her interest in Samoa to Great Britain in return for the Gilbert and Solomon islands. If the British foreign office has this bargain in view it will have to be approved by the United States, as the third power interested in the Samoan islands, before it could be formally agreed to by Great Britain and Germany.

YELLOW FEVER.

Efforts to Raise Quarantine.

New Orleans, Nov. 1.—The Louisiana state board of health is making an earnest effort to have Alabama and Texas raise the quarantine against this city, now that Mississippi has done so, and telegrams have been sent to the officials of both states. Dr. Blunt of Texas, however, wired the Louisiana board that he could not consent to the raising of the quarantine until weather conditions justified. Several towns in Louisiana also refused to lift the barriers.

The Quarantine Raised.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 1.—The order of the Mississippi state board of health raising the quarantine against New Orleans, Mississippi City, Key West, Miami and the infected localities of Jackson, is now in effect. Already notices are being received here of the removal of local quarantines against the city. By Thursday, it is expected, Jackson will be free from all embargos.

No New Cases.

New Orleans, Nov. 1.—The board of health reports no new cases of yellow fever and no deaths.

Otis Now Has 39,333 Men.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Orders have been issued by the war department for the Forty-ninth regiment of volunteers, a colored organization, to leave Jefferson Barracks, Mo., on Nov. 15, for San Francisco, to be put aboard the first available transport for Manila. The Forty-ninth will be the last of the volunteer regiments to be embarked for the Philippines. When it arrives Gen. Otis will have under his command a force of 65,000 men. If the hopes of the administration are realized Aguinaldo and his band will be rounded up before the Forty-ninth and other late reinforcements arrive. Even if this should be the case, however, the full force being provided for General Otis will be needed for a time for garrison duty. With the arrival of the Thirty-second regiment of volunteers at Manila on the steamship Glenogle, General Otis has under his command 39,333 troops, a larger force than he has had at any time before since he began his campaign.

DEAL WITH THE SULTAN.

Mr. Schurmann Tells of the Agreement With the Sultan of Sulu.

Washington, Nov. 1.—In view of the current discussion of the military agreement between General Bates and the sultan of Sulu, the views of President Schurman of the Philippine commission on the subject are interesting. Prof. Schurman said when questioned about the probable continuance of polygamy and slavery in the islands after they came under the American dominion that this was a subject which would have to be dealt with in the most careful fashion to bring an ultimately satisfactory solution.

"It seems to me," said he, "that were it not for the ignorance displayed, the present hue and cry about polygamy and slavery in these islands would be absolutely criminal. In taking over the Sulu group we have acquired no rights of any sort there except those bequeathed us by Spain. She was bound by her agreement with the sultan not to interfere with the religion or customs of the island and it would be most unwise for us to attempt this by force when it can be ultimately accomplished by the slower method of civilization and education."

"The Sulu group proper contains about 100,000 inhabitants. They are all Mohammedans, as are about 150,000 of the residents of Mindanao directly east. To attempt to interfere with the religion of these people would precipitate one of the bloodiest wars in which this country has ever been engaged. They are a different race physically and mentally from the residents of the Visayan islands, powerful men and religious fanatics of the most pronounced type, who care nothing for death and believe that the road to heaven can be attained by killing Christians. Polygamy is a part of their religion and slavery, about which so much is being said just now, is a mild type of bondage."

"The sultan believes from what he has seen of the Americans that they are ready to be friendly and deal honestly by him. Our soldiers and officers already travel into the interior of Jolo with perfect impunity where Spaniards never dared to set foot. It has been suggested indirectly to the sultan that he should maintain an American of good standing as a confidential adviser at his court to aid him in the work of material development for which the beautiful group of the islands is ready, and which is bound to come when they are thrown in touch with the civilized world. I believe that he will take kindly to this suggestion. We have before us in this case the example of England in her various possessions. It has been shown that semibarbarous people frequently can be led where they cannot be driven."

"I have been already harshly criticized for taking this stand in regard to the Sulu islands, since I returned to the United States, but it is my honest belief that what I have just stated is the truth and that any attempt to interfere by force in the Sulu islands at this time will bring on a bloody and wholly unnecessary war."

Policeman Clubs an Editor.

Spring Valley, Ills., Nov. 1.—Policeman Alexander McIntosh clubbed F. A. Truesdale for an insinuation in his paper that the officer had been levying blackmail on the disreputable resorts of the city. The newspaper man was badly cut about the head, kicked and jumped upon by the policeman with both feet, rolled in the mud and dragged to jail, where the officer refused him bail. The newspaper man's treatment has occasioned a suit, in which the officer, his bondsmen and the city of Spring Valley are defendants in a $10,000 damage suit.

The Shubrick Launched.

Richmond, Nov. 1.—The torpedo boat Shubrick was launched here Tuesday in the presence of President McKinley, many members of his cabinet, Governor Tyler of Virginia and an immense outpouring of people. The demonstration was marred in some of its features by a heavy rainstorm.

Escaped Convict Shot.

Tyler, Tex., Nov. 1.—At Troupe, Jim Irvin, colored, an escaped convict from the Henderson county farm, was shot. His wound is in the left shoulder and is not a dangerous one. He was brought here and placed in jail, where his wound was dressed.

Child Severely Burned.

Ennis, Nov. 1.—The little 4-year-old son of Engineer R. A. Boothe happened to a painful accident here. He found a shotgun shell and poured the powder out and touched a match to it. The blast flashed up in his face, burning the face and head severely.

No New Cases.

Ennis, Tex., Nov. 1.—There have been no developments of diphtheria here since Sunday, but there is much anxiety among the people and some are keeping their children away from school.

An Old Citizen Killed.

Cleburne, Tex., Nov. 1.—Reuben Ransome, one of the oldest citizens of Cleburne, was thrown from his buggy Monday night and sustained injuries from which he died in a few hours.

Harriman-Gould Faction.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Private advices received here from New York say the Harriman-Gould faction has secured control of the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf railway.

Marines for the Philippines.

Washington, Nov. 1.—A detachment of 200 members of the United States marine corps at present stationed at the marine barracks, this city, will depart soon for Manila.

PROSPEROUS PORTO RICO.

Great Change Wrought by Nature Since the Hurricane.

Ponce, Porto Rico, Nov. 1.—While commerce and commercial enterprises of every kind are waiting for the United States to give Porto Rico a market in the place of the one taken from her more than a year ago, nature seems to be trying to show how much she can do for this fertile little island and it is indeed surprising to behold the changes she has wrought in the past two months. Large trees that were practically stripped of leaves and small branches, are now as verdant as ever and yield almost as abundant shade as before the terrible hurricane of Aug. 20.

Young sugarcane that was broken down and flooded has straightened up of its own accord and is growing all the more luxuriantly on account of the deposit of mud and soil from the mountains which was washed down on it. It is true the older cane was ruined, but cane that was mature and about to be cut was planted in nature's own way. Whole fields of such cane were leveled to the ground and more or less soil washed over them. Wherever a joint of a cane touched the soil or was covered by it, several new cane stalks put forth and a large bunch of roots reached from the same joint down into the soil. Thus, practically all the mature cane was turned into seed cane, and such fields were abundantly seeded. Of course the planter loses the time while the new crop grows, but he is saved the labor of clearing and preparing the fields and replanting the cane.

Grass grows with great rapidity and today there is grass higher than a man's head, where two months ago was a deposit of mud. Grass is never cut and cured here as in the United States, but is fed green to the horses and cattle all the year round. It is cut by the natives and tied into sheaves and is thus sold daily to owners of horses and cattle who do not possess pasturage.

The change in postage between the United States and Porto Rico from foreign to domestic rates was welcomed by every one. It makes the island seem much more nearer to the new mother country, and already the quantity of mail matter has nearly doubled.

MARCONI'S SYSTEM.

It Will Be Used in Sending Messages Among Hawaiian Islands.

New York, Nov. 1.—Telegraphic communication by Signor Marconi's wireless system is to be established between five of the Hawaiian islands by a company of Americans. Frederick J. Cross, of the firm of Caton, Neil & Co., engineers of Honolulu, who is now in this city, has secured a contract for the American company in Hawaii. Although many engineers regarded the connection of the five islands by cable as impracticable because of coral reefs, on which a cable is soon covered with coral growth, breaks are frequent and repairs exceedingly difficult, the American company had about decided to attempt it as the needs of telegraphic communication had grown most urgent. Then they heard of Marconi's achievements and Mr. Cross was sent to this country to view the workings of his system. He found that the Marconi system would cost much less and be more practical in many ways than a cable. Regular telegraph business will be done by the company installing the system. The distance over which communication will be established will vary from eight to 61 miles.

Murdered for His Gold.

Knoxville, Nov. 1.—It has developed that Lemuel Jackson, the mountain man who was murdered last Friday, was the father of T. B. Jackson, a leading citizen of Partridgeville, Mo. T. B. Jackson reached his father's house and joined the posse searching for the murderers. He says his father had $1200 in gold hidden away in the cabin, in addition to the $600 secured by the murderers. He will spare neither time nor expense to run down the assassins if they can be found. Two men, James Tweed and John Daniels, were arrested on suspicion and placed in jail. They were "tired" by bloodhounds.

Escaped from Pesthouse.

Fort Scott, Kas., Nov. 1.—Doc Brown, an old negro of this city, who escaped from the smallpox pesthouse at Springfield, Mo., last Friday, was discovered on a Memphis train 20 miles south of this city. He was put off and finally surrounded by an armed guard. The mayor of this city was notified and called upon the mayor of Springfield to make disposition of him. Immunes were sent from this city to conduct him back to Springfield at that town's expense. Brown was coming to a stepson's home here. He admitted having escaped from the pesthouse.

WORKERS' INSTITUTE.

Fifth Sunday Meeting Held at Cottonwood.

The Workers Institute of the Bryan Baptist Association, met with the church at Cottonwood, the fifth Sunday in October. Owing to rain there was no meeting Friday.

On Saturday Rev. R. D. Wilson preached an excellent sermon at 11 o'clock a. m., followed by dinner, prepared by the ladies and much enjoyed by those present.

The Institute reassembled at 2 o'clock and the election of officers was held, which resulted in Rev. G. A. Foster being re-elected Moderator and A. W. Shealy secretary.

The first topic was "How Shall We Know the Church that Jesus Christ Organized?" was taken up and discussed by Rev. R. D. Wilson, J. M. Zimmerman and Rev. G. A. Foster.

The following committee was appointed to arrange program for next meeting: Rev. Foster, J. H. Shepard and J. M. Zimmerman.

Adjourned until 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Sunday morning Rev. G. A. Foster preached an interesting and instructive sermon from James 1:27.

Dinner was spread near the church, following which at 1:30 p. m., the Moderator again called the Institute to order and read the Psalm xxxii.

Prayer was offered by J. M. Zimmerman.

The committee on program reported the following:

The next meeting of Workers' Institute will be held with Tryon church, December 29, 30 and 31.

Introductory sermon—Rev. G. A. Foster.

1st.—"How Shall We Know the Church that Jesus Christ Organized?"—Rev. Wilson, J. M. Zimmerman.

2nd.—"The Holy Spirit's Work"—Rev. McClung, D. S. Lloyd.

3rd.—"If There is no Saving Efficacy in Baptism, Why do Baptists Baptize?"—Rev. Bullock, Rev. G. A. Foster.

4th.—"Can a Church Prosper and be a Light to the World that does not Practice Discipline?"—T. E. Shaw and Rev. S. E. Martin.

5th.—"Scripturalness and Consistency of Baptist Communion."—Dr. F. M. Law, Chas. Peters.

6th.—"Is it Right for the Church to pay the Pastor a Stipulated Salary?"—Rev. Foster, J. M. Zimmerman.

Adjourned until next meeting. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in singing.

DETAILS OF THE FIGHT

General White Attributes the Defeat to Loss of Ammunition.

FOUGHT TO THE LAST

British Stood Their Ground until out of Ammunition and Were Overwhelmed — Boers Shelled With Naval Guns.

London, Nov. 1.—It is announced in a special dispatch from Ladysmith that the Boers again closed around that place on Tuesday night sending shells into the British camp.

Two guns, landed from the British cruiser Powerful, opened fire on the Boers at dawn Tuesday. The Boers brought up more guns, but some of them were silenced. It is added that the Boers loss must have been heavy.

The garrison at Ladysmith is described as being in good spirits and confident and troops are said to be full of fight.

Artillery duels were still in progress
Tuesday night.

The guns of the British naval brigade knocked the Boer 40-pounder clean off the platform and silenced the Boer guns on Hepworth Hill. The Boers abandoned positions.

The British war office has made public a dispatch received from General White describing the operations on Monday.

It is as follows:

"Ladysmith, Oct. 31, 7:50 p. m.—I took out from Ladysmith a brigade of mounted troops, two brigade divisions of Royal artillery, Natal field battery and two brigades of infantry, to reconnoiter in force on the enemy's position to the north and if opportunity offered to capture the hill behind Farquhar's farm, which had on the previous day been held in strength by the enemy.

"In connection with this advance, a column consisting of the Tenth mountain artillery, four and a half companies of Gloucesters and six companies of Royal Irish fusiliers, the whole under Lieutenant Colonel Carleton and Major Adys, deputy assistant adjutant general, were dispatched at 11 p. m. on Oct.
29, to march by night up Bellespruit and seize Nicholson's Nek or some position near Nicholson's Nek, thus turning the enemy's right flank. The main advance was successfully carried out. The objective attack being found evacuated and an artillery duel between our field batteries and the enemy's guns of the position and Maxims, which, it is understood to have caused a heavy loss to the enemy.

"Reconnaissance forced the enemy to fully disclose their position, and after a strong counter attack on our right and after the infantry brigade and cavalry had been repulsed, the troops were slowly withdrawn to the camp, pickets being left on observation. Late in the engagement the naval contingent under Captain Lamberton of the cruiser Powerful, came into action and silenced with extremely accurate fire the enemy's guns.

"The circumstances which attended the movements of Lieutenant Carleton's column, are not yet fully known but from reports received the column appears to have carried out the night march unmolested until within two miles of Nicholson's Nek. At this point two boulders were rolled from the hill and a few rifles shots stampeded the infantry ammunition mules. The stampede spread to the battery mules which broke loose from their leaders and got away with practically the whole gun equipment and a greater part of regimental small arms and ammunition.

"The infantry battalions, however, fixed bayonets and accompanied by the personnel of the artillery, seized the hill on the left of the road, two miles from Nek, with but little opposition. They left the road unmolested until dawn, the time being occupied organizing a defense hill and constructing stone sangars and walls as a cover from fire.

"At dawn skirmish attack on our position was commenced by the enemy, but made no headway until 9:30 a. m., when a strong reinforcement enabled them to rush to attack with great energy. Their fire became very searching and two companies of Gloucestershire in an advance position were ordered to short back. The enemy then pressed to short range and losses on our side became very numerous. At 3 p. m. our ammunition was practically exhausted, our position captured and the survivors' column fell into the enemy's hands.

"The enemy treated our wounded with humanity. General Joubert at once dispatched a letter to me and offered safe conduct to doctors and medical officers and parties to render first aid to the wounded were dispatched to the scene of action from Ladysmith last night and ambulances at dawn this morning.

"The want of success of the column was due to the misfortune of the mules stampeding and in consequence of the loss of small arms and ammunition reserve. The security of Ladysmith is in no way affected."

The gloom caused by the British disaster at Ladysmith in a measure was relieved by further particulars giving an account of the heroic stand made by the decimated battalions until their last cartridges were gone. British nerve was momentarily shaken by General White's use of the word, "capitulate," in the first telegram; but now it is known the Gloucesters and fusiliers fought against overwhelming odds and upheld the traditions of the British army, the tension has been relieved since there is no longer ground to dread the loss of life and men accompanied by dishonor.

The details show the catastrophe in a brighter aspect. The full battalions were not engaged and therefore the list of prisoners are materially reduced, while the disaster now appears to have been not so much in consequence of defects in plan of action as the misfortune whereby the column was deprived of its ammunition. Still it seems incomprehensible why the plight of the luckless column was not known at headquarters, as the scene of the surrender was only about three miles northwest of Ladysmith and Lieutenant Colonel Carleton must have expected relief to reach him or instead, in attempting to occupy a defensive position he would have retraced his steps to Ladysmith when he suffered the loss of ammunition.

Apart from General White's statement the losses are very numerous, but there is nothing to indicate the extent of them except vague reports of the soldier who brought the news from Ladysmith, who said the British dead and wounded were lying in heaps and hundreds needed doctors. This, however, is hardly borne out by the long list of captured officers.

The concluding sentence of General White's dispatch relative to the safety of Ladysmith is received here with a certain reserve in view of the fact that similar official assurances were given recently at Dundee and Glencoe and there is intense anxiety for further news of a reported renewed attack which is not mentioned in official dispatches.

Permission to Send Message.

Brussels, Nov. 1.—Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic agent of The Transvaal, has received the consent of the British secretary of state for war, Marquis of Lansdowne, to allow a telegram to be sent to Pretoria to ask the number of killed and wounded on the side of the Boers.

Asks Mediation Be Accepted.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—The Tageblatt says Count Bothmer, president of the German Peace societies, has telegraphed to Queen Victoria praying her to accept the mediation of the United States in the war with The Transvaal.

Irish Newspapers Jubilant.

London, Nov. 1.—The Irish newspapers are quite gleeful. The Dublin Evening Telegraph, John Dillon's paper, says:

"A big bully triumphant is no lovely spectacle, but a big bully beaten is the very acme of disgrace."

The Dublin Evening Herald ridicules the idea of Great Britain menacing Russia after Sir George White's message.

The French Rejoice.

Paris, Nov. 1.—No pains are taken in France to disguise the satisfaction felt in consequence of the British rebuff. In Paris every means of spreading the news was utilized. Some of the more dignified papers adopted a more respectful and sympathetic tone, but the majority were overjoyed. The editor of the Patrie hung the Transvaal and Orange Free State flags out of the office window.

Italy Has Sympathy.

Rome, Nov. 1.—With the exception of the organs of the vatican, the Italian newspapers sympathize with England in her misfortune.

Side With the Boers.

Vienna, Nov. 1.—The general public throughout Austria seem rather glad that the British have met with a reverse.

Will Give a Recital.

London, Nov. 1.—Ignace Paderowski, the pianist, will give a recital in London in behalf of the fund for the families of the soldiers.

Using American Canned Meat.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Merchants in close touch with the South African trade at New York have bought 5,000,000 pounds of canned meats from Chicago packers within 10 days, most of it to be shipped at once. This amount is equal to 100 car loads. It includes corned beef, roast beef and boiled beef, of the same grade as that used by our army in the Cuban war. Chicago packers have had a large trade with South Africa for more than 10 years and have sold canned meats to the French and British governments, who usually carry from two to three years' supply. There have also been large sales of prime mess pork with the English trade, presumably for army supplies.

Forty Negroes in Guard House.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 1.—Forty negro soldiers of the Twenty-fifth infantry, stationed at Fort Bliss, are in the guard house for making threatening demonstrations against Ranger Ed Bryant, when he arrested James McCabe, a soldier, accused of stealing a bicycle in this city and brought him to this city where he was lodged in jail. Bryant caught hold of his prisoner's arm, drawing his 6-shooter at the same time, and ordered the negro into the buggy. The negro obeyed, and Bryant followed him, all the while covering the crowd of negroes with his gun. He ordered the negro to drive, and, leaning over the back of the buggy, pointing the 6-shooter at the negro mob, said the first man to follow the buggy would be made to bite the dust. Not a man moved, but stones were hurled at the buggy.

Asked Not to Convene Court.

Paris, Tex., Nov. 1.—The business men of Paris signed a petition asking Judge D. E. Bryant not to convene the November term of Federal court on account of smallpox in the territory, from which nearly all the witnesses in criminal cases will have to come.
